

HOSPITALS REFUSE TO AID, SAY POLICE

Officials Declare That Institutions Helped by Congress Often Withhold Information.

Stringent measures probably will be asked of Congress this winter requiring hospitals of the District to report immediately to the police department cases which the department should investigate. Police officials are dissatisfied with present conditions, under which hospitals not only are oftentimes neglectful in reporting valuable information, but in some cases suppress it altogether.

SOCIETY

Continued from page eight. street, delightfully entertained a number of her friends at a masquerade party last Saturday evening. The house was profusely and artistically decorated with autumn foliage, pumpkins, ghosts, witches, black cats and the Halloween colors and lighted by lanterns and candles. The greater part of the evening was spent in dancing. During the evening musical selections were rendered by Misses A. Dougherty, M. Deitz, M. Sturge, G. Dougherty and Mrs. Edward Dougherty. Misses G. Duffy and M. Sturge and Mr. Edward Dougherty were the soloists. At midnight buffet supper was served, the table being decorated appropriately for the occasion.
